

This Cult Leader's Chemical Cookbook

The bible, and all it's derivatives sure are difficult to wade through, aren't they? So, I will leave you with the top two commandments:

Create no debts. Appreciate all that you have been given.

Here's the full list:

Thou shalt:

Create
Explore
Appreciate

Thou shalt not:

Waste
Suppress

I Think that's a pretty good start. I'll append ad modify this as best as I can.

Ownership is a lie. Only stewardship may help move us forward.
